Project Day

4th December

10:30 - 4:00

On project days YYM students from Hull and Leeds come together for a fun day of music making - something different to the usual YYM day! On 4th December we meet in Hull for a Street Band workshop. Inspired by New Orleans jazz, blended with contemporary styles, this is a great opportunity to try something new and develop your performance, ear playing, aural and creative skills. We are joined by multi-instrumentalist, composer and arranger Jim Fieldhouse to lead the day.

This time we are opening up project day to other young musicians as a taster of YYM - please invite a friend or any other young people who would enjoy the day - more info and sign up for visitors on the website here -

N.B. YYM students DO NOT need to sign up - we will assume you are coming unless you have notified us of absence.

We understand that travel can be tricky - If anyone can offer a lift to or from Hull, (from Leeds or your area), please let Helen Alderson know.

Address: The Albemarle Music Centre, 60 Ferensway, Hull HU2 8LN

Parking: £2 all day in St Stephen's Shopping Centre car park
